CLC Transition

The first step in the Transition Team's data-gathering for our congregational profile will begin around February 13 with a confidential online survey using the Congregational Assessment Tool (CAT) created by Holy Cow Consulting. Watch your email inbox and/or your US mailbox for an introductory letter from the Transition Team that will outline the process of completing the survey.

TRANSITION STORIES FROM NEW ENGLAND SYNOD CONGREGATIONS

Join New England Synod bishop James Hazelwood as he recounts the stories of congregations across the synod who have responded in creative ways to carry out ministry in their changing communities.

Music Notes

Tom Berryman, Music Director

The music for February 13, the Sixth Sunday after Epiphany, features Berceuse (1929) by the French composer, Jehan Alain for the Prelude. For a performance of "Berceuse."

The J.S. Bach Prelude in C Major, BWV 545 Sunday's Postlude, is one of several large scale preludes in C major. This one begins with an imposing pedal flourish under sustained chords on the keyboards. Click here: For a performance

Hymns for Sunday, February 13

Canticle of Praise: Come, Let Us Join Our Cheerful Songs ELW 847

Hymn of the Day: Let Streams of Living Justice ELW 710

Offertory Hymn: O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright ELW 308

Sending Hymn: How Firm a Foundation ELW 796

Coming on Sunday, February 20, is our seasonal bluegrass liturgy Of the Land and Seasons. Kathy Sheperd (violin), Frank Miller (accordion), Anna and Scott Carlson and Jim Nail (guitars) will play the music.

Silent Movie, postponed! Because of continuing COVID restrictions, we will be rescheduling pianist Rob Humphreville and the Charlie Chaplin silent movie The Kid for later in the spring, allowing more folks from our parish and wider community to enjoy this splendid movie.
